Owned by Sean Strub, President

Property Description

Hotel Fauchere, founded in 1852, was operated by Fauchere family until it closed in 1977. Hosted both Presidents Roosevelt, Pres. Kennedy, Sarah Bernhardt, Charlie Chaplin, DW Griffith, Lionel Barrymore, Mary Pickford, Robert Frost, Ogden Nash et al. The original 19th century Italianate structure is undergoing an historic restoration, into a luxury boutique hotel and spa, w/cabaret bar and restaurant. Two affiliated restaurants (The Muir House and the Broad Street Brasserie) are already open, Hotel to open late 2003. Owned principally by two community-minded entrepreneurs leading the revitalization of an historic town Atlantic Magazine once called "the prettiest county seat in America". We have reasonable expectations, believe in hiring professionals, and enjoy a collegial relationship with colleagues. Milford is 75 miles from NYC, a culturally diverse community absorbing tremendous growth (we are the fastest growing county in the Northeast US), largely from New York City residents, including many artists, writers, retired people, gay men and lesbians and persons seeking a sense of connection to a genuine community that cares about its natural environment, historic legacy, architectural treasures (work by Richard Morris Hunt, Olmstead, Vaux, McKim, Meade & White, Aldrich and others) and cutting edge cultural activities. Milford is the north gate to the 70,000 acre Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area. More information about the community can be found at www.milfordusa.com. More information about the Fauchere project is at www.hotelfauchere.com. Muir House is at www.muirhouse.com. If you are driven to be the best, value working in an environment of trust and respect and have excellent management skills, then we would like to hear from you by email only. Do not telephone or fax. Discretion is important.

Awards

The Hotel hasn't yet reopened, but other businesses the principals have owned have enjoyed low employee turnover, generally prefer to promote from within, seek to achieve a level of success that enables the company to have the best and most highly-compensated employees in the market. The company encourages participation in community activities, highly values diversity and will not tolerate sexism, racism or homophobia in any form. We believe that to attract the best employees, we must be the best employers.
